

CoeLux brings the sky into healthcare environments

Artificial natural light solutions for the well-being of patients and healthcare professionals

Clinical studies confirmed by:

Bartenbach

Benefits for patients

- Improves mood, orientation, and emotional stability
- Supports circadian rhythm and sleep quality
- Reduces anxiety and stress in windowless environments
- Clinical studies: ↓ heart rate, ↑ deep sleep

Benefits for healthcare staff

- Increases concentration and alertness
- Reduces fatigue from long shifts
- Creates more human and relaxing spaces
- Improves perceived quality of the work environment

Measurable results

- +84% preference over traditional lighting
- +18 min of average sleep per day in stressful environments
- Compliant with clinical and diagnostic standards
- Installed across Europe, Asia, North America, and Australia

Easy integration

- Patient rooms and long-term care areas
- Imaging, therapy rooms, and operating blocks
- Medical offices, labs, outpatient clinics
- Corridors, receptions, waiting areas, and changing rooms
- Available in various certified models for safe clinical installation

Why choose CoeLux?

CoeLux is a patented, Made in Italy technology designed to recreate the sky and sunlight with striking realism, even in enclosed or windowless spaces. It brings the benefits of natural light where it was once impossible, with results that are widely recognized and valued by hospitals and architects worldwide.

Want to know more or book a free demo?

Contact us at sales@coelux.com
 for a free consultation.